

Dear competitors.

Please find the draw for the AWEC dressage sub-committee March 13 2011 competition.

Unfortunately due to illness one of our A level judges has had to withdraw from the competition. This has meant that the draw has had to be reworked. The result is that we have managed to find 5 other judges to help us fill the gap. Just goes to show how valuable an A level judge is.

In the end all but the FEI will remain official. We do apologise to these FEI riders. In light of these classes now having to be associate we are happy to refund your entry money in full. We hope that you are still able to attend and compete in what has shaped up to be quite a good field in the PSG. Please let me know by either email arandth1@bigpond.com or phone 0412859756 if you will not be competing.

Also we apologise for some riders with times at either ends of the day. In order to make the classes official it was necessary to juggle things around to accommodate judges who kindly offered to judge who are also riding.

Additionally, due to some of our judges having to return by air we need to finish some classes early to meet the airline requirements. Thus it is necessary to start reasonably early on Sunday. No sleeping in for anyone.

Finally, I would like to stress that riders will need to be on time for their classes. If you miss your time we may not be able to accommodate you due to the large number of horses entered and the above travel restrictions.

Remember if you require stables or covered yards they need to be booked in advance before 2pm Friday. There will be no allocation of stables over the weekend.

We look forward to seeing you all in hopefully sunny Albury. One can only hope because as I write this it is pouring!!
